

www.iranianamericanwriters.org

THE ASSOCIATION OF IRANIAN AMERICAN WRITERS is dedicated to supporting and promoting the work of fiction and non-fiction writers, essayists, poets, journalists, photojournalists, and other word-based artists. Iranian heritage is an important aspect of our identity, although not an essential subject matter of our work. We welcome established and emerging writers, and seek to encourage the development of Iranian American literature and to support fellow writers in Iran, Afghanistan and the Arab world as well as Afghani and Arab American writers in the US.

VISIT OUR WEBSITE AT www.iranianamericanwriters.org where you can read poetry, fiction and non-fiction from our featured writers, find out about upcoming readings and events, check out our opportunities page and members' profiles, and register for membership.

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP:

- Promote your publications, readings and workshops on our site
- Participate in AIAW-sponsored literary events
- Gain access to our members-only blog
- Contribute to our featured writers and critical issues pages
- Become a part of our mutually supportive and diverse community of writers and help shape the future of Iranian American literature

Founder and Co-director:
Persis M. Karim
persisk@yahoo.com

Co-director:
Manijeh Nasrabadi
manijeh_nasrabadi@yahoo.com